
Ashley Saeli

10266 Horizon View Ct. Nokesville, Virginia, 20181

703-403-0348

asaeli@kent.edu

<http://saelidesigns.com/>

Objective

To obtain an on-campus job in children's wear design.

Skills

- Proficient in Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop, and Microsoft Office
- Experienced in patternmaking, draping, flat drawing, and fashion illustration
- Motivated, hard-working, creative team player
- Widely traveled, adaptable and appreciative of diversity

Education

Patriot High School

June 2014

- Advanced Studies Diploma, Suma Cum Laude, National Honor Society Member, Beta Club member, AP Scholar

Kent State University

May 2018 (expected)

- BFA in Fashion Design with an Entrepreneurship minor, Member of the Honors College, Team Leader of the Kent State Figure Skating Team, Study Abroad in Florence, Italy-Fall 2016, Dean's List for all semesters, 2015 Fashion-Tech Hackathon participate

Experience

Intern, Cami NYC, January 2017-Present

- Assist in design development, trend research, flats/tech packs, altering samples and sourcing fabrics and trims; focus on experience in a small entrepreneurial work space and gaining knowledge in the fashion design process

Brand Representative, Altar'd State, June 2016-August 2016

- Responsible for making customers have a great experience; worked on window displays, operated cash register, and processed shipments

Coach, Kent State University Ice Arena, October 2014-May 2016

- Currently teach young children how to ice skate, focus on leadership, training, responsibility and customer service

Server, Heritage Hunt Golf and Country Club, June 2015-August 2015

- Served at weddings, parties, in the dining room and at the pool; focusing on customer service skills, multi-tasking, and teamwork

Assistant Coach, Haymarket Iceplex, April 2011-June 2014

- Worked as an assistant coach, public skate monitor, summer camp counselor and front desk staff; promotion to being a coach, and giving lessons at birthday parties; focus on gaining responsibility and representing company brand